ExpressJet Member Fast Track to United

Sisters & Brothers:

As you may know United will soon be hiring for Inflight positions. We have expressed to United that nobody is more qualified for United Inflight positions than our ExpressJet flight attendants who have been representing the United brand for years. United has agreed and will move our members to the front of the line in the interview process. Keep in mind this does not guarantee you a position or job offer but may expedite the hiring process for you. If you would like to take advantage of this benefit, please email sgonzales@iamDL142.org with your name and reference number from your application.

In solidarity,
