This Agreement made and entered into by and between Allied Aviation Service Company of New York, Inc. (Hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) and the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, District 142, (hereinafter referred to as the “Union”). For the period of October 1, 2016 to September 30, 2019

The term used in this Agreement of “DOR” is the Date of Ratification of this CBA being May 8, 2017.

ARTICLE 1 PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

(a) The purpose of this Agreement is, in the mutual interest of the Company and of the employees, to provide for the operation of the services of the Company under methods which will further, to the fullest extent possible, reliable, efficient and economical fuel servicing, and the continuation of employment under conditions of reasonable hours, proper compensation and reasonable working conditions. It is recognized by this Agreement that it will be the duty of the Company and of the employees to cooperate, both individually and collectively, for the advancement of that purpose and to deal in good faith.

(b) The provisions of this Agreement are intended to and will apply equally to all full time and part time employees covered by this Agreement, without discrimination and regardless of color, race, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, physical or mental handicap.

All jobs referred to in this Agreement is referred to as the Employee which includes all full time and part-time employees and will be recognized as referring to both male and female employees.

Any complaint arising from the Company, Union and Employees under Article 1 (b) of this Agreement must be handled in accordance with the grievance procedure or as required to by law

ARTICLE 2 SCOPE AND STATUS OF AGREEMENT

SCOPE:

(a) The Company recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining representative for the full-time and part-time employees engaged in the fueling of aircraft at LaGuardia Airport. It is understood and agreed that this recognition includes all employees in the classifications listed in Schedule A hereof with the exception of supervisory personnel, which may conduct such bargaining unit employee jobs provided the available employees have been offered the opportunity to perform the work load. In the event no Union employee is made available management will have the right to perform the duties to satisfy its operational needs.

(b) Employees covered by this Agreement shall be governed by all Company rules, regulations and policies that are not in conflict with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Company will supply the employees, and make available to the Union, copies of the Company's policy bulletins, which will contain the current rules, regulations policies referred to in this paragraph. Rules of personal behavior will be distributed and posted seven (7) days before their effective date. Copies of such rules will be sent to the labor organization.

(c) Should any part or provision of this Agreement be rendered invalid by reason of any existing or subsequently enacted legislation, such invalidation of any part or provision of this Agreement shall not invalidate the remaining provision thereof and they shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) The right to manage and direct the working forces, subject to the provision of this Agreement, is vested in and retained by the Company.

(e) If the Company established a new or different shop or classification under this Agreement, the parties shall promptly meet and attempt to agree in writing upon qualifications and rates of pay for such new or different shop or classification.

(f) Washing of vehicles. Washing outside of vehicles may be the employee's responsibility. Fueling personnel will be responsible for the interiors of the vehicles.

STATUS:

(a) This Agreement supersedes any and all agreements verbal or written now existing or previously executed between the Company and any Union or individual affecting the employees covered by this Agreement.

(b) It is further understood and agreed that in the event of a sale, this Agreement to the extent allowed by Federal and State laws shall be binding upon the successor or assigns of the Company. In the event of consolidation or merger, in any degree the Company and the Union will meet, without delay, and negotiate proper provision for the protection of employees' seniority and other rights under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

EQUAL TREATMENT

The Company and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination against any present or future employee by reason of race, creed, color, age, disability, national origin, sex, union membership or any other characteristic protected by law, including, but not limited to, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1981, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Human Rights Law, or any other similar federal, state or municipal statutes, laws, rules or regulations. All claims alleging illegal discrimination under any of the above or similar authorities shall be subject to the Agreement's grievance and arbitration procedure as the final, binding, sole and exclusive remedy for such violations under the terms of this Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Company and the Union further agree that there shall be no discrimination against any present or future employment applicant in hiring or by any referral system or hiring hall because of the applicant's union membership, or lack thereof and that there shall be no discrimination against any employee as a result of engaging in any activity in support of the Union that is not unlawful or in violation of this Agreement. The Company and the Union further agree that all individual claims shall be arbitrated on an individual basis. Consequently, neither the Company, the Union or the employees covered by this Agreement may submit any individual discrimination claim as a class action, collective action or other representative action for resolution under this Agreement or otherwise. This provision shall apply to allegations arising out of events occurring before and/or after the effective date of this Agreement. Arbitrators shall apply applicable law as it would be applied by the appropriate court in rendering decisions on discrimination claims.

ARTICLE 4

NO STRIKE – NO LOCKOUT

(a) During the life of this Agreement, the Union, its officers, employees and members, shall not cause, authorize, or condone, nor shall any member of the bargaining unit cause, authorize, condone or take part in, any illegal picketing or demonstration on any of the Company's premises or on any property adjacent thereto, or on any property on which a Company facility is located or where the Company performs or delivers its services or in any strike (including a sympathy strike on the airport or surrounding grounds), work stoppage, interruption, sick-out, sit-down, stay-in, slowdown, or any other restriction of work or interference with the operation of the Company or its client(s).

(b) In the event of any conduct prohibited in paragraph (a) above, the Company shall not be required to negotiate on the merits of the dispute which gave rise to the action until such has ceased.

(c) In the event an individual employee or group of employees engage in any of the prohibited activities set forth in paragraph (a) above, the Company shall have the right, at its discretion, to discipline, up and to including discharge of such employee or groups of employees. If a grievance is filed concerning such discipline or discharge, it shall be filed at the last step of the Grievance Procedure within five (5) calendar days after such discipline or discharge. The Grievance and Arbitration Procedure set forth herein provides the sole and exclusive remedy for the settlement of employee(s) grievances.

(d) The Company agrees that it will not lockout any employee during the term of this Agreement. However, if any employee is unable to work because of equipment, facilities, labor or other resource are not available due to a strike, work stoppage, slowdown or other interference by the Company's employees or if the actions of employees of another employer, the airport shut down, the client ceases operation; such inability to work shall not be declared a lockout.

ARTICLE 5

CLASSIFICATIONS AND WORK REQUIREMENTS

(a) All work coming within the scope of this Agreement will be assigned to fit classifications herein established and all employees covered by this Agreement will be classified in accordance with their qualifications and the jobs they are required to perform.

(b) Fueller-The duties of a fueller will consist of aircraft refueling, defueling, inoperative gauge procedures, tanker truck sumping, and GSE fueling, including normal paperwork required for the job.

(c) Lead Fueller - The duties of a Lead Fueller shall be the same as those of a Fueller and in additions, as a working member of the group, he will be responsible to a Supervisor for leading and directing the work of other employees in the Fueller classification. An employee, to be qualified as a Lead Fueller, must be the most qualified senior employee to fuel all airlines and must have a clean personnel file for the previous six months and may be disqualified with a written explanation.

The Leads shall be responsible to management for the overall performance of the employees assigned to their group and the timely and satisfactory completion of work assignments by insuring that:

1. Management instructions are promptly and correctly complied with.
2. Employees assigned to his group are properly utilized and instructed for the efficient performance of their daily work.
3. Work assignments are carried out in compliance with operational and safety procedures required by the policies of the company, airport and applicable governmental regulations.
4. Required forms, records, reports and other paperwork are completed legibly and correctly.
5. Employees assigned to his group use only those vehicles, tools, and equipment on which the Company has determined them to be qualified.
6. Assigned equipment is in proper operational condition scheduled for maximum utilization and operated properly for the purpose intended.
7. Hazardous conditions, unsafe practices, improperly functioning equipment and tools are immediately brought to the attention of management.

The Lead shall be responsible to management for insuring compliance with all company policies by those employees assigned to him.

In addition to the above, the Lead shall, upon request, assist management in areas such as but not limited to:

- A. Periodic evaluation of operational requirements and performance.
- B. Operational planning and scheduling.
- C. Evaluation of training methods and techniques. Evaluation of vehicles and tools.

The Lead shall be qualified in the duties of his classification and will be capable of performing such duties. He will assist his group in the performance of their duties provided such assistance does not interfere with the performing of his primary responsibilities as described above. While he is performing such duties, his primary responsibilities shall not be assumed by others. However, the above provisions do not preclude management from directing individual employees from the immediate work area.

The Lead may be required to demonstrate proper work methods, The Lead may be required to demonstrate proper work method(s) and demonstrate any revised operational procedures.

The Lead will be required to perform the duties of his classification. Lead pay should only be granted when working in the capacity as lead fueler.

The Company shall determine the number of Lead Fuelers, in any event a minimum of two (2) are guaranteed. These two (2) will select their days off and shift in order of seniority and will be scheduled, as needed, if any Leads are required greater than two (2), The Company will set the days off and shift hours which will be posted and bid. Prior to such setting the Company will submit the bid document to the Chief Shop Steward for his examination and recommendations.

The first two (2) Lead Fuelers, selected as Leads, will be selected from among the current October 1, 2010 Lead Fuelers in order of seniority. Thereafter if additional Leads are required or the Company desires to fill a Lead Vacancy the Lead Fueler position will be posted and bid.

Among those whom the Company determines meet the qualifications for the position; the most senior qualified employee on all airlines will be selected after the first two (2).

The Lead Fueler shall be required to perform the work of the classification he leads.

Any successful bidder who has never served as a Lead may be reduced without just cause during his ninety (90) day probation. Following ninety (90) days of services such Lead may be reduced from Lead only upon showing of just cause.

Leads shall not be responsible for discipline or recommending discipline for employees under their control.

If an employee desires to bid a lead position, the Company will make all efforts to train these individuals to learn all the proper aspects for being a lead fueler for the designated area chosen by the Company.

It is the responsibility of Lead Fuelers and Fuelers to maintain the interior of the equipment. Upon management discretion, both classifications may be responsible to clean the interior or exterior of the trucks.

ARTICLE 6

HOURS OF WORK

(a) The workday shall consist of a twenty-four (24) hour period and a regular day's work shall consist of eight (8) consecutive hours, inclusive of a meal period, beginning with the start of the employee's regular shift.

(b) The workweek (and pay week) shall consist of seven (7) consecutive days: beginning at 12:01 A.M. on Monday and the regular work schedule shall consist of five workdays of eight (8) hours each within the workweek.

(c) Each employee shall be scheduled two (2) consecutive days off during the week.

(d) Where employees are required to maintain continuous operation of department or assignments, days off and shifts shall be determined by the Company consistent with the requirements of the service. Available days off and shifts shall be selected by employees within each classification on the basis of seniority. Fixed shifts shall be bid every six (6) months, to be effective on or about January 1st and June 1st annually. A notice of the shift change shall be posted as far in advance as possible prior to the actual bid. When there is an airline operating schedule change requiring a major revision of the schedule, the Company will revise the schedule.

(e) All time worked in any continuous tour of duty including overtime, shall be considered as work performed on the workday within which the tour is started.

(f) Employees shall be given at least five (5) day's notice of all shift changes unless an unforeseen flight schedule change has occurred by the airlines.

(g) Day Trades will be allowed at the discretion of the General Manager or Operations Manager based on operational needs, necessities and to meet the airlines schedules. All trades must be either regular time for regular time or overtime for overtime all in the same work week.

ARTICLE 7

COMPENSATION

(a) The hourly rates established for the duration of this Agreement. (See attached schedules A)

(b) Shift Differential - The normal starting time for the shift shall be as follows:

For full time employees hired prior to the October 3, 2014.

The day shift shall start no earlier than 5:00A.M.; the afternoon shift shall start no earlier than 12:30P.M. A premium of forty ($.40) cents per hour shall be paid for the afternoon shift.

(c) If an employee voluntarily transfers from a higher classification to a lower classification and if the Company agrees with such transfer, the employee shall be paid the corresponding seniority rate of the lower classification, provided it does not exceed his present rate of pay.

(d) An employee who is awarded a bid to a higher classification shall be slotted in to the year one (1) rate of that new classification. If an employee's rate is higher than the new classifications rate, said employee's rate will remain frozen. The rate will stay frozen until the employee's classification seniority progression results in a rate increase.

(e) The Company may schedule multiple shift starting times and the shift schedules may overlap. The shifts will be established based on the airlines schedules and demands.

(f) Full time employees hired after the October 3, 2014 will not receive a shift differential.

ARTICLE 8 OVERTIME COMPENSATION

For full time employees:

(a) No overtime shall be compensated for unless such work is performed at the direction of a Supervisor.

(b) Overtime pay of time and one-half straight time (1 1/2X) rates shall be paid to employees for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any work week. An employee will only be eligible for overtime pay after (40) straight time hours have been worked during the same pay period. Vacation, sick days, and holidays not worked are considered inactive hours and shall not count towards overtime.

(c) When overtime is required it shall be distributed as equally as possible among all qualified employees on duty in the classification required. When overtime is required and no qualified employee is on duty, the Union will call the qualified employee with the least overtime to his credit. (See overtime procedure Article 30).

(d) Overtime pay, as described above in Paragraph (b) shall not be paid where such hours result from a change in an employee's regular shift assignment or due to rotation of days off at the request of the employee.

(e) When an employee is requested to work on one (1) of his scheduled days off, he shall be entitled to eight (8) hours work. If not provided with eight (8) hours' work, he shall receive eight (8) hours of pay at the applicable overtime rate. An employee who is called back to work after being relieved from duty shall be entitled to at least four (4) hours of work. If not provided with four (4) hours of work, he shall receive four (4) hours pay at the applicable overtime rate.

(f) For four (4) or more hours of continuous service after regular working hours, an employee will be permitted a paid meal period after the first three (3) hours of such overtime.

An employee who works four (4) or more hours of overtime continuous with the start of his regular shift shall be given a paid meal period within the two (2) hours of his regular shift. "If an employee works a double, the employee shall receive a 15 minute break between the two (2) eight (8) hour shifts in addition to this, breaks during the second eight (8) hour shift."

(g) All training required by the Company outside of an employee's regular work hours will be paid for at the applicable overtime rate. Every effort will be made to schedule training other than on an employee's scheduled days off.

(h) The Company shall determine the amount of overtime required. If the required overtime needs cannot be filled from among employees on shift, the Company shall assign the overtime to the junior (least senior) employees on shift. If the overtime requirement is for eight (8) hours, employees shall be called from the call-in list. If not filled from the call-in list the Company will seek to cover with part time employees, who will be paid overtime if they have worked more than (40) hours in any work week. Finally, if not filled from the call-in list, and part-time employees the overtime shall be assigned to the junior full time employees on shift due to conditions over which the company has no control.

Mandatory Overtime – Mandatory Overtime shall be assigned to the junior man for the first event; thereafter it will rotate up to the next junior man on the next event. Every ninety days (January through March, April through June, etc.) it will revert back to junior man.

The company shall notify the Shop Steward before assigning the overtime to junior employees on shift.

OVERTIME - Most overtime is replacement overtime due to absenteeism, sickness, etc., and no such overtime will be given to any part-time employees unless all full time employees have first been offered the overtime and have refused it.

All other overtime will first be offered to full time employees in accord with the overtime procedures and only if full time employees have refused it, may it be offered to part-time employees.

(i) The first minimum unit of overtime shall be fifteen (15) minutes. Overtime payment will only be granted provided a supervisor and/or management approves the overtime assigned.

ARTICLE 9 PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

The Company may hire part-time employees in the fueling classification.

Part-time employees will be scheduled for a minimum of twenty (20) hours and or a maximum of thirty (30) hours per week. They will be entitled to a scheduled shift with consecutive days off.'

The schedule, shift starting times and the hours per day for Part-Time employees will be determined by the company.

Part-time employees will be on the rates set forth in Schedule "A" but capped at year 4 of the current wage scale. Shift differentials will not apply, overtime applies over 40 regular hours in any given week. Holiday pay will be paid at 2x the regular rate.

Rate of Pay start:	$14.45
1 year	$14.75
2 year	$15.00
3 year	$15.25
4 year	$15.55

Part-Time Employees shall not be scheduled back to back – the intent is not to circumvent this clause.

The number of part-time employees that shall be utilized shall not exceed thirty (30) percent of the full-time employees in the fueling classification.

(a) The part-time employees will be hired not at the detriment of the employees hired prior to October 3, 2014.

Meaning overtime will be awarded to the full time employees first and based on employee seniority.

Further that the Company will not layoff full time employees and replace them with part time employees.

In the event that a full time employee resigns leaves or retires, then this job can be replaced with part-time employees.

(b) All part-time employees must become members of the Union, pursuant to the Union Security Clause of this Agreement.

(c) Part-time employees shall not be offered overtime unless full-time employees available for overtime have refused the overtime offer.

(d) No full-time employee, in any Classification, hired prior to October 3, 2014 will be laid off in a reduction in force as long as any part-time employee is working in that classification.

(e) The Union shall have the right to verify the part-time compliance.

(f) For overtime of (1) hour or less, if the full-time employees on duty are not available to work the overtime, this time will be offered to the part-time employees which are going off of duty. For known overtime of more than one hour the Company will first canvass the full time employees on duty and then canvass the call list, and only thereafter canvass the part-time employees.

(g) All other terms and conditions of the current contract shall continue in effect. The Company will post available full-time positions for bid by part-time employees.

(h) The Operations Manager of the Company will meet with the Union to discuss problems that may arise.

(i) Where employees are required to maintain continuous operation of department or assignments, days off and shifts shall be determined by the Company consistent with the requirements of the service. The Company reserves the right to hold as many shift bids as necessary. Available days off and shifts shall be selected by employees within each classification on the basis of seniority. Fixed full time shifts shall be bid every six months, to be effective on or about January and June. Part time shifts will be bid by the Company.

A notice of the shift change shall be posted, as far in advance as possible, prior to the actual bid. When there is an airline operating schedule change, requiring a major revision of the schedule, the Company and the Shop Steward will meet to discuss the manner of handling such revision of the schedule. The Company guarantees that whenever it changes its operation schedule in response to changing airline schedules, for any change of one hour or less the Company will give notice of a shift change resulting from the airlines schedule change and or requirement.

(j) All time worked in any continuous tour of duty, including overtime, shall be considered as work performed on the work day within which the tour is started.

The following days are designated as holidays.

New Year's Day

Martin Luther King Day*

Memorial Day*

July 4th

Labor Day*

Thanksgiving Day*

Christmas

Note * - Holiday will be observed on the actual date of the holiday. The Company will post the holidays at the beginning of each year.

A part-time employee may be required to work on any of the above holidays.

Holidays

When the Holidays fall on the part-time worker's regular scheduled day off the part-time worker will receive the number of hours of regular straight time pay that the part-time worker was scheduled to work (4, 5 or 6 hours pay).

Sick Leave

Part-time Employees who have completed at least one year of service following the 90 day probation period will accrue two (2) sick days effective January 1st. For those employees that have completed probation and not completed one year of service will be issued one sick day after six months of service being 520 hours. Those employees that have reached one (1) day in the first year will receive two (2) sick days on the following second year.

Shift Differentials – Part-time employees do not receive any shift differential.

ARTICLE 10 HOLIDAYS

For full time employees:

(a) The following days are designated as holidays.

New Year's Day

Martin Luther King Day*

Memorial Day*

July 4th

Labor Day*

Thanksgiving Day*

ARTICLE 13

SENIORITY

- (a) Seniority, under this Agreement, shall be defined as length of continuous service with the Company and shall be by job classification. The job Classifications to be recognized for seniority purposes shall consist of:

(1) Fueller

- (b) New Fueller employees shall be regarded as probationary employees for the ninety (90) days from their employment and there shall be no responsibility on the part of the Company for the reemployment of probationary employees if they are discharged or laid off during this period. No employee will be permitted to bid to another classification during his probationary period. If retained in the service, after the probationary period, the names of such employees shall be placed on the seniority list of their respective classification as of the date of their original hiring.

- (c) Seniority, by job classification, shall be recognized in bidding for shifts, days off, vacations, job vacancies or new jobs, and in all promotions, demotions or layoffs involving classification covered by this Agreement.

In bidding for a Lead position, classification seniority and experience shall govern, with preference being given to the senior qualified bidder with established seniority in the applicable classification.

(d) An employee, covered by this Agreement, shall lose seniority status and/or classification seniority and his name shall be removed from the seniority list under the following conditions:

- (i) He quits or resigns from his classification;
- (ii) He is discharged for just cause or is removed from a classification for just cause;
- (iii) He is discharged for being absent from work for more than two (2) consecutive days without properly notifying the Company of the reason for his absence, and not then if a satisfactory reason is given for not notifying the Company.
- (iv) He does not return to the service of the Company on or before a date specified in the notice from the Company offering him re-employment, which date shall not be less than fourteen (14) days after receiving such notice, providing such time is reasonable by the employee, provided, however, that subdivision (iv) and (v) of this section shall not apply to offer of temporary work.
- (v) He accepts a bid in a lower classification unless the employee is on a lay-off status in a higher classification
- (vi) He has not been rehired within eighteen (18) months after lay-off.

(e) Employees shall be laid off by classification in reverse seniority order and may exercise their prior accrued seniority in lower classifications to displace employees who have less seniority within such classification. Employees who receive such layoff notice shall notify the Company within twenty-four (24) hours whether they intend to exercise their seniority.

(f) Re-employment, after layoff within eighteen (18) months, shall be on a seniority basis. Credit shall be given for an employee's length of service prior to the layoff, if recalled within 18 months, in determining the pay bracket applicable when the employee is re-employed in the same or a lower classification. The Company shall send a notice of re-hiring by registered mail to the last address on file. If the employee fails to report to work within two (2) weeks thereafter he shall lose all seniority rights. The Union shall receive a copy of each notice or rehiring. Re-employment, for up to 18 months after lay-off, the employee will have seniority to be rehired at the former pay rate but the benefits will be as per the current CBA new hire rate.

(g) When two (2) or more employees enter the service on the same day, seniority rank shall be determined by the lower of the number of the last four digits of the employee's social security number. In the event that last four digits are the same then the last six digits will be used.

(h) An employee promoted to a supervisory position shall continue to retain and accrue seniority under this Agreement for a period of ninety (90) days. If, at the end of that period, he remains in the supervisory position, he shall forfeit all seniority rights under this Agreement.

(i) A seniority list giving names, date of employment and classification shall be furnished to the Union within one (1) month of signing of the Agreement and semi-annually thereafter. The Employer shall notify the Union of all terminations and all new employees.

If mutually agreed upon the Shop Steward will be assigned to the day shift with Saturday and Sunday off.

ARTICLE 14 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

(a) Unpaid Personal Leaves of absence may be granted based on operational needs and necessities for periods not to exceed thirty (30) days in any calendar year, to employees who, in the Company's opinion, have a good reason therefore, provided such leaves shall not be so many in numbers of personal leaves at one time as to interfere with operations. During such leave, the employee's seniority shall accumulate, subject to Article -12 (c).

(b) If any such leave is extended by the Company, it must be approved by the Union and the employee will not accrue and retain seniority, except that seniority shall continue to accrue on leave for Union business. An employee accepting gainful employment while on leave of absence, except as specifically approved in writing by the Company and the Union, automatically terminates employment with the Company.

(c) Employees who by reason of bona fide illness or injury or requires time off, will be granted appropriate leaves of absence. Seniority will continue to accrue during such leaves, but in no event will seniority accrue for more than 15 months. Following 15 months of absence the employees will be responsible for costs of all of their benefits for the next six months. If the employee fails to return after twenty-one (21) months the employee will be terminated.

(d) Upon receiving written request from the Local Lodge, District Lodge or International Union, the Company shall grant Leaves of Absence for Union Business. Leave of Absence, without pay, will not be considered as service with the Company for the purpose of earning vacation or any company benefits. Leave of Absence for Union business will continue to accrue seniority. Leave of Absence will be limited to a period of 4 years. After four years the employee will have to re-apply for a leave of absence. Vacation entitlements do not apply to persons on Union business. For absences of less than one year, vacations will be pro-rated. The Company has the right to verification of continuous Union business upon returning from the absence.

(e) Under the Family Medical Leave Act the employee may take up to twelve (12) weeks of year of unpaid leave. Vacation days and sick days are independent of FMLA. Vacation days and sick days do not accrue during FMLA. The Company will comply with the current rules and regulations of FMLA. During the FMLA unpaid leave the employee must pay for the employee share of the health insurance, dental and vision. This must be prepaid each week. A failure to pay will result in the cancellation of health insurance.

(f) Military Leave

- 1) The re-employment and seniority status of any employee hereunder, who while in the active service of the Company entered the Armed Services or the Merchant Marine of the United States shall be governed by applicable law. Military leave shall be limited only to active service in the armed services and the merchant Marine; however, Merchant Marine services must be during a war time period.
- 2) Employees on leave of absence for military training shall be granted a leave of absence and shall accrue seniority and length of service credit for pay purposes for time so spent on such leave.
- 3) When military training leave, not to exceed two (2) weeks, is granted, time spent on such leave shall not affect the employee's wage progression period, vacation accrual, or seniority.

(g) The re-employment and seniority status of any employee hereunder, who while in the active service of the Company entered the Armed Services or the Merchant Marine of the United States shall be governed by applicable law. Military leave shall be limited only to active service in the armed services and the merchant Marine; however, Merchant Marine services must be during a war time period.

(h) Employees on leave of absence for military training shall be granted a leave of absence and shall accrue seniority and length of service credit for pay purposes for time so spent on such leave.

(i) When military training leave, not to exceed two (2) weeks, is granted, time spent on such leave shall not affect the employee's wage progression period, vacation accrual, or seniority.

ARTICLE 15

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

(a) Employees shall give the Company two (2) weeks' notice of resignation in writing. Failure to give such shall result in the forfeiture of accrued benefits.

(b) Employees laid off through no fault of their own shall be granted two (2) weeks' notice in writing, or pay in lieu thereof.

This requirement of notice set forth in (b) shall not apply in the event of sudden cessation or curtailment of operations caused by an Act of God, or by an order of Government grounding aircraft or by a wildcat strike of an airline without sufficient notice, and in such cases, employees shall receive three (3) days' notice of layoff or pay in lieu thereof.

(c) Employees, whose shift is changed as a result of the above section, shall receive forty-eight hours' notice of a change of shift before working their new schedule.

ARTICLE 16

UNIFORMS

(a) Suitable rain gear and other foul weather gear and a parka shall be furnished by the Company.

When required by the Company, the Company agrees to furnish uniforms to employees covered by this Agreement. All expense of laundering and cleaning such uniforms shall be borne by the Company.

The issued uniform and equipment shall be worn at all times while on duty. At no time should the employee modify their uniform. Employees are responsible for safekeeping of all issued clothing and equipment and must pay for the replacement of any items lost at the time of loss.

The Company shall provide a light jacket or sweatshirt every three (3) years to be cleaned by the employee. Company will provide summer shorts and T-shirts (in addition to short sleeve shirts).

(b) Employees covered by this Agreement are required to keep their uniforms neat and clean at all times. Only Company issued clothing, after probationary period, will be allowed.

The company reserves the right to revise and amend the uniform policy after discussion and agreement with the Union.

ARTICLE 17 BULLETIN BOARDS

The Company shall provide bulletin boards for the use of the Union. All notices placed on such boards shall relate solely to official Union business and shall have the official signature of the Union.

ARTICLE 18 PAY DAYS

All compensation payable to employees hereunder shall be paid weekly, on Thursday, by check, during regular working hours whenever possible, or by automatic electronic deposit to the employees' checking account which normally is credited the day before the payday.

ARTICLE 19 MANAGEMENT CLAUSE

The Union recognizes and agrees that the Company retains the sole right and responsibility to manage and operate the business in all respects and as to all matters in connection with the exercise of such rights, subject only to the employee's right to grieve, in accordance with the procedures later provided in this Agreement.

Such rights include but are not limited to the establishment of working conditions, work shifts and shift times, the hiring, promoting, demoting, and rehiring of employees, the suspending, the discharging or otherwise disciplining of employees to the extent that any of such matters are not otherwise covered or provided for in this Agreement; and provided that in the exercise of such functions, management shall not discriminate against any employee because of his membership in, or lawful activity on behalf of the Union.

Except where specifically and expressly abridged or modified by this Agreement and any supplementary agreements that may hereafter be made, all rights, powers and authority of the Company are retained by the Company.

ARTICLE 20

ABSENCE FROM DUTY

(a) An employee hereunder shall not be absent from duty without prior ermission, except for reason of sickness, injury or other justifiable cause beyond the control of the employee.

(b) An employee hereunder who is prevented from reporting for duty by reason of sickness, injury or other justifiable cause beyond the control of the employee shall promptly notify his immediate supervisor of an absentee control point, if established by the Company, of his inability to report for work giving reason for his absence, except when prevented by circumstances beyond the employee's control. Employees shall be required to give at least two (2) hours notice of sick absences.

(c) If an employee reports late, with no notice, and the employee is replaced by overtime, that employee will be recorded as late and sent home for the day without pay. At the discretion of management and the approval of the person receiving the overtime the employee will be written up and may be allowed to work the balance of the day.

ARTICLE 21

BEREAVEMENT

When it is necessary for an employee to be absent from duty because of death in his immediate family (mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, brother, sister, child, wife (current spouse), or current mother or father- in- law, such employee will be permitted to be absent for three (3) consecutive calendar work days off with pay immediately following the death or during the funeral services. The Company will allow a bereaved employee to utilize earned vacation, sick time and unpaid leave in conjunction with bereavement leave subject to operational need and necessity. Such pay will only be honored, provided such employee has provided proof of services.

ARTICLE 22

JURY DUTY

An employee who is called for Jury Service will be excused from work for those days on which he is required to serve, and will receive for each day of Jury Service on which he would have been regularly scheduled to work the difference between their Regular Rate of Pay and the actual payment before taxes received for Jury Service. Employees must present proof of Jury Service and amount of pay received therefore.

ARTICLE 23
UNION CHECK OFF

The Company shall deduct union dues and initiation fees from the employees on proper authorization as provided by the employee and shall forward such monies to the Union. If the Company is advised in writing by the employee to stop taking the deduction, the Company will immediately notify the (Union) District 142 Representative in writing and via email.

ARTICLE 24
GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

(a) Upon joint request, the Company will make an employee's personnel file available to that employee and the Union.

(b) The Company shall provide each employee with a copy of this Agreement.

(c) The Company and Shop Steward will meet every month to discuss local issues.

(d) At the discretion of Management and based on the operational needs, "Emergency Day" options may be available upon employee's call in. Examples of an "Emergency Day" are: extreme weather event(s), terrorism event(s), natural disaster(s), "States of Emergency" declared by Local or State Government resulting in road closures, etc. This is not to be used for personal emergencies.

An "Emergency Day" will not be counted against the "Perfect Attendance Bonus" or the "Company Attendance Policy". Management may offer the Employee a custom eight (8)-hour shift to fulfill their daily scheduled hours, which will be mutually agreed upon between the Company and the Employee. The "Emergency Day" may be paid at the Employee's option as a Vacation day, Sick day, or unpaid. The company's decision will be based on the current events, and will be offered on a call-in basis.

ARTICLE 25
GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

(a) Any decisions or agreements, relating to the interpretations or applicability of this Agreement mutually agreed by the Company and the Union, shall be binding on every individual employee claiming or entitled to the benefits of this Agreement.

(b) The Company may discharge or discipline an employee for just and proper cause. The company will furnish the employee concerned and the Union with a copy of any complaint or commendation which is placed in the employee's personnel file. No employee who has completed his probationary period shall be disciplined to the extent of loss of pay or discharged without being advised in writing of the charge, or charge preferred against him leading to such action. Such notice shall be presented to the employee no later than fifteen (15) business days from the time the Company has knowledge of the incident upon which such charges are based.

(c) The Union may select and designate Shop Steward for the purpose of representing the terms of this Agreement. The past practice of grievance investigation by authorized Union Representatives shall continue. Should any abuse of this procedure occur both parties will meet to discuss it.

(d) During the probationary period an employee may be discharged at the Company's option without recourse to the grievance procedure.

(e) For the presentation of complaints and grievances that may arise the following procedures will apply: Copies of letter in an employee's personnel file regarding his work performance shall be sent to the employee and his Shop Steward. Such letter shall be removed from the file after two years from the date of issue provided the employee did not receive additional reprimands for the same offense.

Any employee, the Union or the Company who has a grievance, may within fifteen business (15) days of knowledge of the complaint, submit a grievance to the other party. The answer to said grievance will be given within fifteen (15) business days.

If either party desires to submit an appeal it will be presented to the General Manager or his designee and/or the Shop Steward or his designee. Appeals will be answered within fifteen (15) business days.

Within sixty (60) business days of submitting the appeal, either party to this Agreement must submit its appeal for arbitration through FMCS or to an alternative arbitrator which has been agreed upon by the parties.

If any employee is discharged a hearing will be held within five business (5) days.

If any party to the Agreement requests a panel of arbitrators from the FMCS, either party to this Agreement may demand that the selection procedure be limited to striking names from the panel until a single arbitrator remains.

ARTICLE 26
HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE

All full-time employees will be covered by the Companies selected Health Care carriers for Medical, Dental and Vision Care. The Company and the Union will meet annually on or about each September for a January 1st renewal and in March for a May 1st renewal to discuss the Health carriers and rates. Any change in carriers or rates will be subject to negotiations and agreement between the Company and the IAMAW.

The Company will initially offer Emblem HMO Health Insurance plan which is community rated which in the benefit of the employees and Company. The employees may choose to enroll with the health plans or may elect to opt-out.

The Company will choose the health and insurance carriers, and will have the option to add additional alternative health insurance plan designs and costs which will be negotiated and agreed between the Company and the Union.

The plans may begin as of January 1 or on an alternative insurance as the annual renewal date. Currently the policy date is May 1st.

The Company will provide enrollment information and opt-out information each year during the open enrollment period. Employees will be provided a time period to review this information prior to making selections for coverage and plans.

Information on the plans will be posted on the bulletin Boards.

Plan details will be shown in "Schedule B."

ARTICLE 27
SECURITY FUND 401K

If any employee wants participate in the 401K plan, that employee must contribute one percent (1%) of their salary and Allied will contribute thirty cents ($.30) per hour with a cap of forty (40) hours per week.

ARTICLE 28
SICK LEAVE

Full time employees who have completed at least one year of service will accrue five (5) sick days effective every January 1st. For those employees that have completed probations and not completed one year of service will accrue one sick day for every two months of service with a cap of three (3) for that year. Those employees that have reached the three (3) day maximum will accrue five (5) sick days on the upcoming January 1st. All other employees that have not reached the maximum of three (3) days will have to wait until the second (2) January 1st.

Said sick leave is to be used in cases of bona fide illness and verification may be required in cases where abuse is suspected.

Employee will be put on notice before the Company requires an employee to bring in a doctor's note. This will not be done arbitrarily, but will be based on the employee's record.

(a) During the period of the first ninety (90) calendar days of employment, employees are not to receive sick leave. An employee who shall have completed this period of ninety (90) calendar days shall accrue:

After probation	1 st year	three (3) days
	2 nd year	five (5) days

(b) Unused sick leave shall be cumulative up to a maximum of forty (40) days. Any days over this amount which are unused can be sold back to the company.

Prior to December 15th each year an employee may elect to sell back or bank unused sick days. If the bank has reached 40 days, excess days will be paid to the employee based on a rate of eight (8) regular hours per day for each excess days.

(c) Days absent due to sickness of the employee shall be paid for from such accumulated sick leave. Payment shall be based upon the employee's regular straight time rate multiplied by eight (8) hours for each day.

(d) An employee will not be paid sick time unless the employee notifies his supervisor in accordance with Company policy being two hours prior notice prior to the start of their scheduled work shift. At that time the employee must give the following information:

Name, shift, place where sick, and expected duration of sickness.

(e) An employee who is under a doctor's care and expects to be absent for more than three (3) calendar days may be excused from making a daily call if the employee states in their original or subsequent call the length of time the employee expects to be absent. In cases where the absence is extended for more than one (1) week, an additional call must be made at the end of each seven (7) calendar day period.

(f) When an employee's sickness is for more than three (3) calendar days, a doctor's certificate covering the duration of the sickness must be presented to their supervisor upon returning to work.

While it will not be the policy of the Company to require a medical certificate for all absences of one (1) to three (3) days, in order for an employee to be eligible for sick leave pay, the Company reserves the right to require such certificates whenever unusual circumstances indicated probable abuses of sick leave policy.

(g) The provisions for sick leave accumulations and payments are designed to compensate employees for actual sickness and shall in no event be construed so as to secure to employees additional vacation, holidays, or severance payments.

(h) Employees and the Union recognize their obligations to prevent absence for reasons other than sickness or injury or other abuse of such sick leave privilege and pledge their cooperation to the Company to prevent abuses.

(i) While it will not be the policy of the Company to require a medical certificate for all absences of one (1) to three (3) calendar days in order for an employee to be eligible for sick leave pay, the Company reserves the right to require such certificates whenever unusual circumstances indicate probable abuses of the sick time policy.

(j) Unused sick leave for which payment is not made under the provisions of this Article shall, in addition, continue to be accumulated towards a maximum of forty (40) calendar days, as set forth in paragraph (a) and (b) of this Article.

(k) Sums received under this Article shall not be used in calculation of overtime payments under the provisions of this Agreement.

The provisions for sick leave accumulation and payments are designated to compensate employees for actual illness and shall in no event be construed so as to provide to employee's additional vacation, holiday or severance payments.

(l) An employee who retires, leaves the company for any reason, is laid off or passes away will be Compensated for unused sick leave at the rate of two (2) days of unused sick leave for one (1) day pay at the employee's straight time rate.

Employees and the Union recognize their obligation to prevent absence for reasons other than illness or injury or other abuse of such sick leave privilege and pledge their cooperation to the Company to prevent abuses.

Any employee on extended sick leave will draw on his accrued sick days until such days are exhausted. If the New York State Statutory Disability Benefits is being paid in accordance with New York State Disability Benefits Law for long term disability and the employee has sick days remaining, the employee may use the sick day bank to pay the difference between the NY rate and the Company regular 40 hour rate. A dollar charge will be applied to the bank as opposed to a per regular day charge. The sick day bank cannot be used to supplement workers compensation until the employee is formally under long term disability.

Sums received under this article shall not be used in the calculation of overtime payments under the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 29

VACANCIES AND BIDDING

(a) The Company will determine and establish and may change the number of employees in each classification and the number assigned to a shift subject to the following limitations:

- 1) When an employee covered by this Agreement vacates his position it shall be bid as a vacancy unless the Company abolishes the position.
- 2) When the Company increases the number of employees, in any classification covered by this Agreement, the Company shall bid each additional job as a vacancy.
- 3) When a vacancy occurs it shall be posted on all company bulletin boards for a period of ten (10) working days. The successful bidder will be awarded the vacancy within five (5) working days.
- 4) The position being bid on will be awarded to the senior qualified employee bidding for the job.
- 5) The Company will post available full time positions for bidding.

(b) In the event no employees bid for the vacancy, the Company will fill such vacancy as follows, in the order set forth:

- 1) Recall the most senior employee on layoff in that classification.
- 2) Promote the most senior qualified employee from a lower classification desiring the vacancy.

- 3) Hire an employee outside the Company.

(c) A successful bidder shall hold the job to which assigned for a period of thirty (30) days in order to demonstrate his ability to perform the work required. If, during this period, the employee is unable to demonstrate his ability to perform the work, he will lose any new classification seniority he has accrued and will be reassigned by the Company to his former position in the same classification he previously held. This thirty (30) day period may be extended for an additional thirty (30) days by mutual agreement of the Parties

ARTICLE 30 OVERTIME PROCEDURES

In the implementation of Article 7. (d), the parties hereby agree to follow the procedure set forth below:

OVERTIME PROCEDURE

1. For each classification there will be an overtime list containing the names of all employees (including Leads) who have completed their probationary periods with the following exceptions.

- (a) Employees who do not desire to be considered for overtime will so notify the Union, in writing, and their names will not appear on the overtime list. Such notification will apply for a minimum period of thirty (30) consecutive days and upon return to the overtime list the employee will be charged with:

The same number of overtime hours as the highest man on the shift to which assigned or the same number of hours which were previously charged to them at the time they were removed from the overtime list, whichever is greater.

2. For all employees who have completed their probationary period a record will be kept, and will be brought up to date daily, of overtime worked, or offered and declined converted to equivalent straight time hours paid, or which would have been paid had the offered overtime hours been worked, and will include the cumulative number of hours so charged. Overtime points will revert back to zero the first Sunday of November and the first Sunday in May aligned with the shift bid.

- (a) Fractions of hours will not be recorded. A fraction of five-tenths (5/10ths) of an hour or more will be converted to the next higher hours. A fraction of less than five-tenths (5/10ths) will be converted to the next lower hour.

- (b) Paid lunches and regular holidays worked will not be considered as chargeable overtime except for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a holiday.
 - (c) Any refusal of overtime to attend Company business, training or Union business will not be chargeable.
- 3. Employees, being added to the overtime lists, will be charged with the same number of hours as the highest man on the list to which assigned. This will apply to employees being added to the list upon the completion of their probationary period.
- 4. Employees moving from one (1) shift to another within an overtime unit will carry their overtime hours with them.
- 5. Employees who are absent for thirty (30) or more consecutive days (except absence due to vacation, sick or injury) will, upon return to duty, be charged with:
 - (a) The same number of overtime hours as the highest man on the shift to which assigned, or the same number of hours charged to them before their absence, whichever is greater.
- 6. When overtime is required it will be offered as follows:
 - (a) Overtime anticipated which is continuous following a scheduled shift will be offered to employees working on that shift.
 - (b) Overtime anticipated to be four (4) hours or less in advance of and continuous with a scheduled shift will be offered to employees on regular work days on the oncoming shift.
 - (c) When overtime is contemplated, at least four (4) hours notice will be given.
 - (d) An employee who calls in sick or is sent home by a doctor or dispensary will not be eligible for overtime until he again reports for this regular shift.
 - (e) Where two (2) or more employees have an equal amount of overtime charged to them the senior employee will be considered low man and will be offered the overtime.
 - (f) Overtime will be offered to probationary employees only when it is not possible to obtain a non-probationary employee to work the required overtime.

- (g) An employee who does not have a telephone, or whose telephone is not known to the Company, will be charged as if it had not been possible to contact him by telephone.
- 7. For the above purposes it is considered that an employee's regular work day is the twenty-four (24) hour period from the start of his regular shift.
- 8. When overtime is offered as in 6 above, it will be offered first to the employee with the least number of cumulative hours on his overtime record.
- 9. Any employee, who mutually agrees to a change of status, will be considered ineligible for overtime on the days involved.
- 10. No employee shall be required to work more than sixteen and one half hours (16.5) in any twenty-four (24) hour period.
- 11. An employee working on his seventh (7th) day shall not to be eligible for overtime until he has had 7 ½ consecutive hours of rest prior the start of his regularly scheduled shift.

ARTICLE 31
SAFETY, HEALTH, TRANSITIONAL WORK PROGRAM,
PCE TESTING

- (a) The Company agrees to provide a safe working environment for its employees A Joint Safety Committee shall be established, composed of a minimum of two (2) representatives. It shall be the duty of this Committee to investigate all claims of unsafe working conditions submitted by employees. The Committee shall meet monthly at a mutually agreed time and place. The Committee shall keep "minutes" of its meetings (a copy of which shall be placed on the bulletin boards), the claims submitted and the action taken. The Committee will make every effort to clear up outstanding items by the next monthly meeting.
- (b) Other Safety and Health Language
 - 1) The Company agrees to furnish a sanitary water fountain will be provided. The floors of the toilets and washrooms will be kept in good repair and in a clean, dry and sanitary condition. The Union and employees recognize their duty and responsibility to assist in maintaining safe, healthful and sanitary conditions.
 - 2) Shops and washrooms will be lighted, ventilated and heated in the best manner possible, consistent with the sources of heat, ventilation and light available.
 - 3) The Company, Union and employees will cooperate towards a prevention of work related accidents and the furtherance of an aggressive safety program.

- 4) It is agreed the Safety and Health Committee acts hereunder exclusively in an advisory capacity and that the International Union, district, local Union, Safety Committee and its officers, agents and employees shall not be liable for any work connected injuries, disabilities or diseases which may be incurred by an employee.
- 5) No employee shall be discharged or suspended pending an investigation and by the Safety Committee for refusing to work on a job which is not reasonably safe and/or sanitary or which might endanger his/her health or another workers health.
- 6) In no event shall an employee be discharged, suspended and/or disciplined in any manner for adhering to Company, both, local and/or system, rules and/or regulations.
- 7) The Company may implement a Transitional Light Duty Work Program. The Company will make the necessary accommodations for an employee deemed light duty and will adhere to the restrictions of the employee's physician.

ARTICLE 32 UNION ACCESS

ARTICLE 33 OCCUPATIONAL INJURY

Allied Aviation will abide by all New York State Workers' Compensation Laws.

ARTICLE 34 DRUG TESTING

- (a) Employees responsible for an accident will be suspended, without pay, until the results of the drug testing are received by the Company. If the employee tests negative, the employee will be paid for the suspension time at straight time.
- (b) Employees must refer to Allied Aviation Services Hourly Employee Handbook, Code of Conduct - Drugs in the Work Place for policies.

The Company will follow the Federal Department of Transportation's Drug Testing Policy.

ARTICLE 35

ATTENDANCE INCENTIVE

Perfect attendance award will be seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) per year for perfect attendance. In addition to the payment, the employee will receive one additional personal day for the next calendar year. The personal day will follow same rules as dictated under Article 10. The day will be lost when the employee does not achieve the perfect attendance award (i.e. If the employee has perfect attendance in 2016, an additional personal day will be granted in 2017. If the employee does not achieve the perfect attendance award in 2017, no additional days will be granted beyond article 10 for 2018). In order to receive the perfect attendance award the employee has to have not called in sick for the entire year nor have incurred an unexcused late for work more than one time in the calendar year.

EXAMPLE: Employee has not called in sick for the year but has been late for work on two or more occasions. The employee will not qualify for nor receive the perfect attendance award.

ARTICLE 36
DURATION OF AGREEMENT

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein this Agreement shall become effective October 1, 2016, and shall remain in full force and effect until September 30, 2019 and shall renew itself without change from year to year thereafter unless written notice of intended change is served by either party hereto at least thirty (30) days prior to such date.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the day and year first above written.

Subject: LGA proposed hourly rate increase

In an effort to stabilize the work force and attract new applicants, the Company is proposing significant rate increases including the starting wage for all Fueling agents at the Company's La Guardia Airport operation. It is our belief that the proposed wage increases will reduce turnover and improve the safety and on-time performance within the operation but more importantly will show our commitment to the employees and operation alike.

- 1> The company is proposing the following new rates of pay that will supersede any and all existing wage scales

Starting	$18.75
Year 1	$19.25
Year 2	$19.55
Year 3	$19.80
Year 4	$20.00
Year 5	$20.35

- 2> The hourly starting rate increases to $18.75 from the current rate of $16.25 on or about June 01, 2018
- 3> All employees hired after March 2014 will be advanced to the start of the new scale ($18.75)
- 4> All Full-Time employees hired prior between the years 1999 and 2013 will be advanced to 'Year 2' ($19.55) of the new wage scale
- 5> Any and all Part-Time employees will be advanced through the scale and capped off at 'Year 3' of the new wage scale ($19.80)

The Company is further proposing that the outlined increases be inclusive of any and all contractual increases and or bonuses for the 2018 calendar year. The Company is further proposing that any and all remaining contractual increases and or bonuses be voided.

In light of the significant advancement, the Company is further proposing a two-year extension to the collective bargaining agreement extending through September 30, 2021.

All other terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreement are to remain in force and effect during the term of the additional extension.
