Please make an effort to join us if you are able to attend one of these webinars. PDGC Coveny will be joined by District 142 Executive Board members and committee chairs, who will provide updates on all properties and companies across the district.

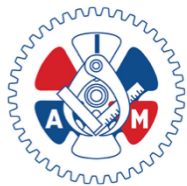

There will be Q&A sessions during each webinar. You can ask a question live or type it in the Q&A section of Teams.

Remember, these webinars are an important way to stay informed about everything happening around the district, and they are especially important for shop stewards to share information with our members.
