Q & A Webinar

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

We would like to inform you that the IAM Union District 142 Q&A Webinar, previously scheduled for September 9, has been canceled.

District 142 remains committed to keeping our members informed, engaged, and up to date on issues that impact our membership. As we move forward, we are prioritizing timely communication and will continue providing important updates, particularly as they relate to the upcoming General Election and other matters affecting our members.

We understand the importance of these discussions and appreciate your patience and understanding. Please be assured that serving our members and ensuring you have access to accurate, relevant information remains our highest priority.

Thank you for your continued support and engagement.

Sincerely and fraternally,

District 142 Executive Board
